Sample Program:

Arrival Time: Teachers are ready to receive and greet children upon their arrival. Teachers will also do a quick check in with each parent as they drop-off their child.

Circle Time: Teachers use this time to present a story and reinforce the theme-based curriculum. Circle time may include drama, rhymes, finger plays, games, and songs. Circle time may be used to teach social awareness and social studies to older students.

Fine-Motor Activities: Children are encouraged to work independently or in small groups with manipulatives such as puzzles, pegboards, sorters, clay, and sensory tables.

Learning Centers: Children are encouraged to move from center to center, interacting freely with various environments planned to support the day's teaching aim.

Snack: As children eat snack, teachers encourage peer and adult interaction to develop social and language skills in a relaxed environment.

Large Muscle Activities: Children are provided opportunities to develop large-muscle skills through running, climbing, sliding, and exploring outdoor play equipment.

Creative Art: Activities are carefully planned to promote individual creative expression while focusing on small motor development. Art activities will be open-ended and child-centered, focusing on the process rather than the product.

Self-help Skills: Children are encouraged to try things on their own. Children assist in clean-up to foster cooperation.

Hands on Experiences: Children are involved in a variety of concrete experiences. These experiences are designed to promote self-discovery, language development, and problem solving.

Special Plans: Off site field trips as well as on site special days will be planned occasionally.
